Capricorn Love & Sex Forecast 2010:

The Capricorn is an ambitious and responsible sign and when it comes to love and sex those qualities certainly apply. Love is serious and so is commitment and as a Capricorn it can be difficult to leave an old relationship because you're stuck inside the rules and traditions you find so comforting. In 2010 however, a series of Eclipses in your sign and your relationship sector will force the Capricorn out of that comfort zone. Being responsible in love means being true to yourself first. Only then can you be fulfilled in your love and sex life, Capricorn!

Capricorn in a Relationship Forecast 2010:

The Eclipses of 2010 tell the story for you Capricorn and it may not be one you want to hear. On January 15th 2010 there will be an Eclipse in your sign closely conjunct Venus, the planet of love. Since this falls in your first house of identity you will feel a strong pull to "love yourself" first and may decide that the New Year is a good time to initiate the end of a relationship that doesn't allow you to shine in the way the Capricorn is meant to. The Solar Eclipse on July 11th 2010 will fall in your partnership sector and will make a gorgeous link to Mars, the planet of sex and energy. A new partnership connected to your career may be on the horizon.

Single & Dating Capricorn Forecast 2010:

Although the Eclipses in 2010 are likely to affect Capricorn in a relationship more, the Eclipses on January 15th 2010 and June 26th 2010 fall in your sign and will help to create significant changes in your identity. Because of these changes, your tastes in relationship may also evolve, Capricorn. When it comes to love and sex you may be brought back into the past between October 8th 2010 and November 18th 2010 when Venus, the planet of love, turns retrograde in your friendship sector. Since Venus rules your 5th house of romance it's possible that you'll reconnect with an old "friends with benefits" and this time may actually fall in love. You go Capricorn!
