

RASIPHAL 2009

CANCER 2009 ASTROLOGY

The period from 27th of January 2009 to 14th of April 2009 would be a tough period. During this period, work pressure would be rising and you may not be capable to make friendly relation with authorities. Hence, results may not be as per your efforts put in by you.

Career, Incomes and Gains

Beginning of the year would be fantastic as Sun and Mars both are going over the 6th House. Transiting Jupiter and Mercury over the 7th house may also help you. Venus would be in 8th house, but later it will move in 9th house on 27th of January 2009. Sun will enter into 7th house on 14th of January. Mars will also enter in Capricorn on 27th of January 2009. Hence, after 27th of January 2009, there would be some troubles at work place and your relation may get spoilt with seniors. The period from 27th of January 2009 to 14th of April 2009 would be a tough period. During this period, work pressure would be rising and you may not be capable to make friendly relations with authorities.

Hence, results would not be there as per your performance. Even promotion could get blocked by seniors. They may also impose their will on you. That's why idea of may come into your mind. But, you seriously need to observe all the things before taking any major decision. If you have any interest in speculation, this is the time when you should control such type of tendencies. During this period, you are also advised to control rising expenditures. The month of May/June/July will come with lots of good news. Now you would be able to overcome all types of hindrances. Your luck would be favoring you and you may impress anyone due to eloquence in speech and impressive communication skills. Salary hike and promotion may take place. Obviously, you would be rewarded for your contribution in organization. Foreign trips are also indicated by planets. During the month of August/September there would be only minor or avoidable troubles. The month of October to December will give a major boost in financial position.

Love, Family and Social Life

The period form January 2009 to April 2009 is showing some troubles in married life. Chances of separation or divorce would be very high. But, during the second and last phases of the year, your relationship would go very smoothly with your spouse/lover. If, you are single and looking for dream prince or princess, your search may end now. It is strongly possible; you will meet your destination. If, you are already in love, you will spare some memorable moments with your partner. It is a perfect month as far as worldly comforts are concerned. However, if, you are married, you may experience some tensions too.

Education and Traveling

The period from January 2009 to April 2009 is going to give some troubles in relation of education for those who are born under the Cancer ascendant. Possibly, you are not going to get expected results until you put in your best. However, those who are preparing for higher studies might get success due to their hard work and pre-planning Jupiter is going over the 7th house. Chances of traveling are very high. These journeys would be advantageous. Gains through traveling are possible

Health

Any new and major health problem would be cause of tensions. However, you might get suffered due to chronic as well as stomach related diseases.

