Libra Love & Sex Forecast 2010:

Every Libra will begin 2010 feeling a greater sense of pressure from the universe to define his or her identity since Saturn, the taskmaster, is now in your sign. The work you do this year that helps to structure your personality will have a great effect on the Libra partnerships. Libra is a sign known for compromise and balance but this year, Saturn demands you to ask the question "What about me?"

Libra in a Relationship Forecast 2010:

In 2010 Libra will have extraordinary upheavals and expansion potential in love and sex. It's almost like getting divorced and married again all in the same year! Some Librans will do exactly that – although not necessarily with the same partner.

Uranus, the planet of sudden chaos, will dip into your seventh house of partnership from May 27th 2010 until August 13th 2010 to give you a stronger urge for freedom and a need to express the Libra individuality in relationships. Jupiter, the planet of luck, will also make a guest appearance in this part of your chart from June 6th 2010 – September 9th 2010 helping you to grow a relationship in a new and open direction. The possibilities in love and sex are endless for the Libra this year!

Single & Dating Libra Forecast 2010:

The single Libra will also have a busy year in 2010 when it comes to love and sex. Your fifth house is ruled by quirky Uranus and since Uranus is changing signs this year it's likely that you'll be juggling two different sexual relationships at the same time, Libra! Perhaps you'll discover a sudden, magnetic attraction to someone you know is very different from your usual "type." Stability in romance can happen but only after you weigh the scales and decide who truly has the Libra's heart.

Venus, your ruling planet of love, will turn retrograde from October 8th 2010 – November 18th 2010 and during this time your confusion between an old and new lover may affect your self esteem. Remember, you can't always have your cake and eat it too. But that doesn't mean the Libra doesn't deserve cake!
